Kimberlyn Avon Successfully Previews Her One Woman Show:

“A Night With Sarah Vaughan”

A Packed Audience in a Ripley Grier Studio Embraced

Kimberlyn Avon's Musical and Dramatic Portrayal of Sarah Vaughan

On Saturday, August 26, 2017, Kimberlyn Avon and her team, consisting of Jason Williams and Dionne McClain Freeney, previewed her one woman show at her “Backer Audition.” Uniquely, Kimberlyn Avon provided her audience with a captivating and melodic view of Sarah's life. Additionally, Kimberlyn Avon was vibrant when she embraced her audience with unconditional love, and she charmed them with a modest representation of Sarah Vaughan's magnificent music.

All in all, Kimberlyn Avon gave a strong and effective dramatic reflection of how Sarah Vaughan and her jazz contemporaries produced award winning and unforgettable music.

Notably, Kimberlyn Avon's overarching theme provided an intimate look at how Sarah Vaughan “raised her audience's level of appreciation” for some of the best music of the Twentieth Century.

Without doubt, Kimberlyn Avon is committed to dramatically sharing with her audience an intimate revelation of Sarah Vaughan's music as well as her musical collaborations which represent an iconic treasure chest that must be shared today and with future generations.

Finally, during the wine and cheese reception Kimberlyn Avon informed a few members of her audience that on August 11, 2017, the Metropolitan Room lost their lease and consequently, she has had to reschedule her previously booked November 3, 2017, premier: and her team is urgently looking for a new venue. Furthermore, Kimberlyn Avon was overjoyed to find out that Carl Green, a key member of her team met with a former elected official and a business leader during the wine and cheese reception. Specifically, the former elected official and business leader informed Carl Green that they “Loved Kimberlyn Avon's A Night With Sarah Vaughan.” They also stated their plans to strongly support and sponsor the future previews of Kimberlyn Avon's “A Night With Sarah Vaughan” and with her Gala Premier in the spring of 2018.
